

ITQ Noida Team undertakes a tree plantation project

The Noida team of InterGlobe Technology Quotient participated in the afforestation activity by planting trees in certain key areas of the city. In March 2015, they took up the project to make the city greener and its atmosphere healthier.

