

ITQ takes on tree plantation initiative at Aravali Biodiversity Park

InterGlobe Technology Quotient initiated a project to plant trees in Aravali Biodiversity Park, Gurgaon, on September 2015. Under the program we had successfully planted 1000 trees within 600 acres of pristine natural setting. This was aimed to realize the importance of trees in our life and contributing to a more sustainable natural environment.

