

Annual TAAI Travel Awards honours Travelport with the Best GDS for 2012

New Delhi, October 25, 2012: Travelport, the leading business services provider that is officially distributed by InterGlobe Technology Quotient (ITQ) to the global travel industry has been awarded the "Best GDS of the Year" award by TAAI (Travel Agents Association of India) Travel Awards for the second successive year.

Expressing elation at the achievement, J B Singh, President & CEO, InterGlobe Technology Quotient, "We, at InterGlobe Technology Quotient feel honoured and proud to be associated with Travelport on the occasion of being voted as the Best GDS in Asia Pacific. This is a significant achievement as it is awarded based on the votes of the travel agency fraternity of TAAI. This win highlights the company's commitment to provide solutions and benefits to travel agents in the Indian sub continent. He added, "Travelport has always been instrumental in providing some ground breaking technologies to meet the business needs of valued customers. This achievement reinforces our commitment of providing increased benefits to our customers in terms of reach and productivity and we look forward to a continued fruitful and mutually beneficial association. We wish to thank TAAI and its members for this vote of confidence."