Travelport, a leading distribution services and e-commerce provider for the global travel industry, today announces the renewal of its full content agreement with Virgin Atlantic, one of the world's leading airlines.

Building on the existing relationship between the London-based carrier and Travelport, the renewed agreement will ensure that content from Virgin Atlantic will continue to be made available to Travelport GDS users globally, with full content access to the carrier's best inventory and fares.

"We are pleased to extend our agreement with Travelport as they have consistently provided us with innovative and efficient technology to deliver Virgin Atlantic's offering to travel agents globally," said Joe Thompson, Director of Network and Alliances at Virgin Atlantic.

Robin Ranken, Head of European Airline Relationships at Travelport commented, "Virgin Atlantic is one of the world's best known airlines and we are delighted to extend our agreement with them in order to maximise their reach to global travellers using Travelport's leading technology. This new agreement supports our mission to continue to deliver unrivalled content to our travel agency customers."
