

Travelport and Azerbaijan Airlines Renew Strategic Content Distribution Agreement

LANGLEY UK, February 5, 2025 – Travelport, a global technology company that powers travel bookings for hundreds of thousands of travel suppliers worldwide, and Azerbaijan Airlines (AZAL), the flag carrier of Azerbaijan, today announced they've renewed their content distribution agreement. Agencies using Travelport+ will have continued access to AZAL's full range of retail-ready content, including ancillary services.

"Travelport has been an exceptional partner supporting our significant growth by ensuring our content is normalized and easily accessible for agencies," said Jamil Manizade, Chief Commercial Officer at AZAL. "This extended agreement demonstrates our shared commitment to empower travel retailers with the ability to deliver better experiences for our customers."

Agents using Travelport+ can view and compare the full range of fares and services from AZAL seamlessly in a single view, enhancing their ability to book the best offers for travelers. With Travelport's AI-powered search enhancements, Content Curation Layer (CCL), agents can quickly and easily compare flight options and identify the most relevant offers from AZAL. Travelport's CCL uses AI to normalize and enrich aggregated content so that airline offers are easier to understand and compare.

"This agreement ensures that agencies using Travelport+ will continue having streamlined access to enriched, retail-ready content from AZAL," said Damian Hickey, Global Head of Air Partners at Travelport. "AZAL's growth strategy will be greatly supported by our agency customers who are using Travelport+ to search and book the latest offers and additional routes from AZAL, along the capabilities needed to service and deliver exceptional experiences to travelers."
