Travelport, the business services provider to the global travel industry, and LOT Polish Airlines, the national flag carrier of Poland, have announced a new global full content agreement. The new multi-year deal secures full access to all of LOT's fares, seat availability and schedules for Travelport-connected travel agencies worldwide.

"Being part of Travelport's extensive network is a critical part of our distribution strategy to ensure our flights are available to travel agents everywhere", said Marcin Piróg, Chief Executive Officer, LOT Polish Airlines. "Travelport's breadth, technology and merchandising capabilities will ensure we continue to have a very successful relationship for years to come."

Robin Ranken, Travelport's Head of Airline Relationships for Europe, said "We are proud of our ability to successfully sign full content agreements and continue to be an essential part of the travel industry. Signing this agreement with LOT is great news for travel agents in Poland and beyond and we are looking forward to further cementing our relationship with LOT in the future."
