Travelport, the business services provider to the global travel industry, has today announced a continuation to its global content agreement with Bulgaria Air. The agreement sees Galileo, Apollo and Worldspan connected travel agency customers across the globe continue to have full access to Bulgaria Air's published fares.

This agreement also includes Bulgarian Air's implementation of Travelport's NAVS functionality.

Maria Stoyanova, commercial director at Bulgaria Air commented: "Travelport has a vast network of travel agent customers worldwide, as a result they offer a very important distribution channel for us. We are delighted to be continuing our partnership with them."

"We are pleased to have signed this deal with Bulgaria Air and to be able to provide our travel agency customers the peace of mind that they have access to all content without a surcharge," said Robin Ranken, Head of Airline Relationships for Europe. He also said "This latest agreement is further evidence of our ability to be a valuable distribution channel and source of revenue for airlines worldwide."
