

Airline “Yakutia” enters into its first GDS agreement with Travelport

Moscow, Russia

Aug 1, 2013

Travelport, a leading distribution services and e-commerce provider for the global travel industry, today announces a distribution agreement with Russian airline, Air Company Yakutia. With this new agreement Travelport- connected travel agency customers in Russia, and worldwide, will have easy access to the Yakutia Sakha Republic-based airline’s published fares.

“Working with a leading technology partner like Travelport is a key part of our distribution strategy. This new agreement will enable us to offer our products and services to the travel agency community across Russia in an efficient and cost effective manner,” said Ivan Prostit, General Director of Air Company Yakutia.

Robin Ranken, Head of Airline Relationships at Travelport commented, “as part of our growth strategy in Russia, we are pleased to be partnering with Air Company Yakutia to make their content available both in Russia and globally. We are delighted that Air Company Yakutia has recognised the value that Travelport brings to airlines across the globe and we are looking forward to developing a long term relationship with them.”
